EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR-TREASURER

REPORT

Reaching, training, sending, serving — these are the reasons North Carolina Baptists partner on mission together.

TODD UNZICKER
Executive Director-Treasurer

N.C. Baptists,

Every time we reach the lost, train disciples, send workers into the harvest, and serve those in need, we are living out the Great Commission.

We partner together as local churches because we can do more for the kingdom than we can apart.

I've been filled with gratitude watching our churches step up and link arms across the state and beyond. Your commitment to reaching your communities, investing in the next generation, planting churches and meeting tangible needs is a powerful witness of gospel unity and a glimpse of what God is doing among and through us.

In 2024 N.C. Baptists kept the Great Commission at the forefront of our hearts and minds by continuing the "Praying for the Nations" initiative, daily praying for unreached people groups living in North Carolina. With a focus on "24 in '24," N.C. Baptists prayed for two people groups each month.

In April, we celebrated with churches across the state as they reported about 900 baptisms during the "Fill the Tank" baptism Sunday.

We celebrated record-breaking participation in BeDoTell's Summer Youth Weeks and the Call Conference for college students. Your heart for raising up the next generation of ministers and leaders is evident. Through SendNC, 46 churches were planted in North Carolina – representing more than 18 cultures.

We saw about 1,200 churches complete local service projects in 92 of North Carolina's 100 counties during the first ServeNC Week in August. ServeNC challenges churches to identify and meet needs in their local communities, acting as the hands and feet of Jesus. The heart behind ServeNC was evident year-round, especially in the immediate aftermath of Hurricane Helene last fall. In the first three weeks following the storm, about 10,000 volunteers signed up to assist with disaster relief and rebuild efforts.

Thanks to your generosity, more than 60 pastors and ministry leaders were connected with Christian counselors through a faith-based counseling pilot program. This initiative allows us to better care for those faithfully shepherding our churches and engaging in ministry.

These stories are only a glimpse of how N.C. Baptists lived on mission together in 2024. As you read this report, be encouraged by how God is equipping us to reach, train, send and serve.

"On mission together" isn't just a slogan. It's who we are. And that identity is evident in the ways you pray, give and go. It's a joy to serve alongside you. Thank you for your faithfulness and partnership in making Jesus known across North Carolina and to the nations.

On mission together,

Todd Unzicker
Executive Director-Treasurer
Baptist State Convention of North Carolina

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Inc.

A Nonprofit Corporation

The undersigned, being a natural person of the age of eighteen (18) years or more, hereby makes and acknowledges these Articles of Incorporation for the purpose of forming a nonprofit corporation under and by virtue of the laws of the State of North Carolina as contained in Chapter 55A of the North Carolina General Statutes entitled the "North Carolina Nonprofit Corporation Act," as amended (the "Act").

Article I. Name

The name of this nonprofit corporation is the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Inc. (the "Convention").

Article II. Duration

The period of duration of the Convention shall be perpetual unless sooner dissolved in accordance with the Act.

Article III. Type

The Convention is a "charitable or religious corporation" within the meaning of the Section 55A-1-40(4) of the Act.

Article IV. Purposes

The Convention is organized exclusively for religious, charitable and educational purposes as permitted under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code"), including, but not limited to, the following:

A. To assist the churches in their divinely appointed mission; to promote missions, evangelism, education, social services, the distribution of the Bible and sound religious literature; and to cooperate with the work of the Southern Baptist Convention; and

B. To do any and all acts and things which may be deemed desirable or expedient for the benefit of the programs of the Convention.

Article V. Powers

In order to carry out the purposes set forth in sections (A) and (B) of Article IV, the Convention shall have full power:

A. To solicit, acquire, hold, manage, convey, transfer and dispose of cash donations;

B. To lease property;

C. To invest in, acquire, hold, pledge, resell, exchange, transfer or otherwise dispose of securities of any nature and to exercise all rights, powers and privileges of ownership thereof, including the right to vote thereon for any and all purposes;

D. To enter into, make and perform contracts of every kind for any lawful purpose without limit as to amount, with any person, firm, association, corporation, town, city, county, district, state, territory, or government; and

E. To exercise any and all powers which may be conferred by law or which may be deemed necessary or expedient for the achievement of the objects and purposes of the Convention as set forth in Article IV.

It is understood that the Convention works together with the associations in seeking to fulfill these purposes. While independent and sovereign in its own sphere, the Convention does not claim and will never attempt to exercise any authority over any other Baptist body, whether church, auxiliary organization, association, or convention.

Article VI. Members; Composition

The Convention shall be composed of the following members described in Sections A. and B. below (which members shall be referred to a "members" or "messengers" in the Articles and Bylaws of the Convention):

A. Those messengers who have been duly elected by churches who are in friendly cooperation (also referred to as cooperating churches) with the Convention, having been duly registered, and in attendance at the annual meeting or a special meeting of the Convention. The following subparagraphs describe the Convention's standards and method of determining the maximum number of messengers the Convention will recognize for any Convention meeting from each church in friendly cooperation:

1. A church in friendly cooperation shall be one which financially supports the Cooperative Program of the Convention. A church which fails to contribute to the Cooperative Program through the Convention for 3 consecutive calendar years, beginning with calendar year 2022 or later, shall be removed from the Convention's list of cooperating churches, will no longer be eligible to elect messengers to the annual meeting or special meetings of the Convention, and will no longer be eligible for any other benefits afforded cooperating churches by the Convention. The Convention shall be responsible for notifying any church that fails to contribute to the Cooperative Program in the prior calendar year.

2. A church in friendly cooperation must have a faith and practice that closely identifies with Baptist beliefs and distinctives. The Board of Directors shall apply this provision. Any decision to declare a church as not in friendly cooperation by the Board of Directors shall be final, provided that a church has a right to request the Convention in annual session to reconsider the Board of Directors' decision that such church is not in friendly cooperation with the Convention.

3. Among churches not in friendly cooperation with the Convention are: 1) churches which knowingly act to affirm, approve, endorse, promote, support, or bless LGBTQ+ lifestyles; 2) churches which affirm, approve, endorse, promote, or support discriminatory behavior on the basis of race or ethnicity; or 3) churches which affirm, approve, endorse, promote, or support behavior inconsistent with Biblical teachings regarding sexual abuse. The Board of Directors shall apply this provision. Any decision to declare a church not in friendly cooperation pursuant to these standards by the Board of Directors shall be final, provided that a church has a right to request the Convention in annual session to reconsider the Board of Directors' decision that such church is not in friendly cooperation with the Convention.

4. Each church in friendly cooperation with the Convention shall be allowed to elect and register two (2) messengers. Churches which fill out an Annual Church Profile (or an equivalent document approved by the Board of Directors) at least ninety (90) days prior to an annual or special called meeting of the Convention shall be eligible to elect and register five (5) more messengers than were elected by the church and registered as messengers at the previous annual or special called meeting of the Convention, up to a maximum of ten (10) messengers.

5. No cooperating church shall be entitled under any circumstance to elect more than ten (10) messengers.

6. No one who is a messenger pursuant to a position described in Section B below is eligible to be elected as a messenger from a cooperating church.

B. The officers of the Convention, the members of the Board of Directors, the Editor of the Biblical Recorder, the President of Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, the President of North Carolina Baptist Men (also referred to as Baptists on Mission) and the President of the North Carolina Baptist Associational Missions Conference.

Article VII. Officers of the Convention

The officers of the Convention shall be a President, a First Vice-President, a Second Vice-President, an Executive Director-Treasurer, and Parliamentarian, as set forth in the bylaws of the Convention.

Article VIII. The Board of Directors

Management of the Convention and its properties and affairs shall be vested in the members of the Convention, the Convention officers and Convention committees as well as its Board of Directors, which, in addition to its other powers and authorities, shall have the power and authority from time to time to sell, expend, or otherwise dispose of any and all property of the Convention in furtherance of any of the purposes for which the Convention has been organized. The members of the Convention are described in Article VI herein and the members of the Board of Directors of the Convention, their number, their terms of office, and the method of their selection and removal shall be provided for and determined by the bylaws of the Convention.

Article IX. Registered Agent

Article XI. Prohibitions

No part of the net earnings of the Convention shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers or any "private shareholder or individual" within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code; provided, however, that the Convention shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article IV hereof. No compensation shall be paid to directors and officers for their services as members of the Board of Directors or as officers of the Convention. No substantial part of the activities of the Convention shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Convention shall not participate in or intervene (including the publishing or distribution of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. A. By a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 (a) of the Code as an organization described in Section 501 (c)(3) of the Code;

B. By a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Sections 170 (c)(2) and 2055 of the Code; or

C. By a "charitable or religious corporation" as that term is defined under the Act.

Article XII. Dissolution

In the event of its dissolution, the Convention, after paying or making provision for the payment of all the liabilities of the Convention, shall distribute all of the net assets of the Convention to one or more organizations which themselves are exempt as organizations described in Sections 501 (c) (3) and 170 (c) (2) of the Code, or to federal, state, or local government exclusively for public purposes. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Superior Court in the county in which the principal office of the Convention is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization and organizations, as said Superior Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Article XIII. Personal Liability; Indemnification

The members of the Board of Directors shall not be personally liable to the Convention for monetary damages arising out of any action, whether by or in the right of the Convention or otherwise, for any breach of duty as a member, officer, trustee or director, except for liability with respect to: (1) acts or omissions that such director at the time of the breach knew or believed were clearly in conflict with the best interests of the Convention, (2) any liability under Sections 55A-8-32 or 55A-8-33 of the Act, (3) any transaction from which such director derived an improper personal financial benefit, and (4) acts or omissions prior to the date the Articles are effective. Also, as used herein, the term "improper personal benefit" does not include a director's reasonable compensation or other reasonable incidental benefit for or on account of service as an employee, independent contractor, attorney or consultant of the Convention. If the Act is amended after the date of the Articles to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of the director, then the liability of the director shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Act, as so amended. No amendment or repeal of the provisions of this Article XIII shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any director of the Convention for or with respect to any act or failure to act on the part of such director party occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

It is the policy of the Convention to indemnify to the maximum extent permitted by the Act any one or more of the indemnified parties against judgments, penalties, settlements and other liabilities incurred by them in connection with any pending, threatened or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal investigative or administrative and against reasonable costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) in connection with any such proceeding, where liabilities and litigation expenses were incurred incident to the good faith performance of their duties. As used herein, the term "indemnified parties" shall mean the officers of the Convention, the members of the Board of Directors, the President of the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, the President of the North Carolina Baptist Men and key employees and special committee members as listed in a duly authorized resolution adopted by either the Board of Directors or the Convention. The Convention may advance expenses in connection with any proceeding to any such person in accordance with applicable law. The use of funds of the Convention for indemnification or for purchase and maintenance of insurance for the benefit of the indemnified parties shall be deemed a proper expense of the Convention.

Article XIV. Incorporator

The name and address of the incorporator is James H. Royston, 205 Convention Drive, Cary, North Carolina 27511 (Wake County).

Article XV. Amendments

The Articles may be changed or amended at any session during any annual meeting of the Convention other than the first or the last session during the annual meeting or during any special meeting of the Convention by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the registered messengers present and voting when the vote is taken, provided that notice of any and all amendments to the Articles (a) shall either appear in the Biblical Recorder in at least one (1) issue with a publication date of more than ten (10) days in advance of the meeting of the Convention in which the proposed action is to be taken or be mailed to every cooperating church, as defined above, at least twenty-one (21) days in advance of the meeting of the Convention in which the proposed action is to be taken; and (b) shall appear on the Convention's website beginning at least twenty-one (21) days in advance of the meeting of the Convention in which the proposed action is to be taken and to remain on such website through the conclusion of the meeting of the Convention in which the proposed action is to be taken.

6. Quorum. A majority of any committee in office immediately before the meeting begins shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of such standing committee. Except as otherwise provided by law, the Articles or in these Bylaws, an act of the majority of the standing committee members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of such standing committee. The ex officio committee members described in Bylaw I.B.1.c. shall not be counted in determining a quorum

7. Duties and Membership of Standing Committees

   a. Committee on Nominations: The Committee on Nominations shall consist of eighteen (18) members serving three (3) year terms, six (6) of which shall rotate off each year. Its duties shall be to nominate persons for election by the Convention to serve as members of the Board of Directors of the Convention, the members of the boards of trustees and directors to be elected by the Convention of the Related Entities (as defined below), and such other nominations as may be delegated to the committee by the Convention, in accordance with the following procedures:

      i. The committee shall begin to function upon election. It shall meet as often as needed to prepare recommendations for vacancies and shall begin no later than March 1 to prepare recommendations for the annual meeting of the Convention.

      ii. The Related Entities (and individually, a "Related Entity") are Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Inc. ("Children's Homes"), Biblical Recorder, Inc. ("Recorder") and North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Inc. ("Foundation"). This committee shall invite in writing each Related Entity to submit recommendations for vacancies for its respective board occurring annually or between annual meetings of the Convention. The committee shall invite individuals through the Convention's website to submit recommendations for trustees and directors of Related Entities and for terms on the Board; this invitation shall include a current list of how many persons are to be elected to the Board in that year from each region. The invitation may also appear on the Biblical Recorder website. All recommendations shall be accompanied by biographical material, including general assessments by personal and church references. Recommendations and supporting material shall be submitted early enough for the committee to acknowledge and carefully evaluate each recommendation and make an informed decision based upon character, churchmanship, and special skills required by the particular Related Entity. All such materials shall be kept by the chair of the committee during the period of active work up to and until the time of the Convention, and all such materials received from churches and individuals shall be shared upon receipt with the particular Related Entity involved. After this Convention has taken action on nominations, the chair will forward all biographical materials to the new chair of the committee.

      iii. When the committee meets to do its work, it shall give careful consideration to those who have been recommended from the various sources indicated above and to the fact that the trustees or directors of each Related Entity are close to that Related Entity, have expert knowledge of its needs and possibilities, possess an interest and concern for the Related Entity, and know the men and women who can best serve the Related Entity.

      iv. When considering nominations, the committee shall:

1) Consult with the representatives of the boards of trustees and directors of the Related Entities for the purpose of determining the specific trustee or director skills needed;

2) Consult as needed with persons making recommendations with respect to their recommendations for membership on the Board and the boards of trustees and directors of Related Entities;

3) Share with the Related Entities its proposed nominations prior to notification of these nominees. This is for the purpose of further consultation, if further consultation is deemed necessary by either the Committee or the boards of trustees or directors of Related Entities;

4) Follow its own best judgment in making nominations to this Convention or the Board. The committee should strive to select and nominate the best representatives of the Convention from the resources available to the Baptists of North Carolina;

5) Give special emphasis to stability of effective leadership, thus assuring the continuous work of Baptists;

6) Consider demonstrated active churchmanship, thus assuring effective Convention representation;

7) Strive for a cross-section of membership, thus assuring representation of churches of various sizes and types, a variety of professional and educational backgrounds, geographical areas, different age groups, and both lay persons and ministers. It is desirable to avoid the concentration of leadership in too few places.

8) Consent of the nominee to serve shall be secured by the committee prior to the recommendations to this Convention or the Board.

v. No person shall be nominated or appointed to serve on more than one (1) Convention committee, Board of the Convention, special committee of the Board of the Convention (as hereinafter described in Bylaw II.F.), or board of its Related Entities at the same time.

vi. It is desirable that at least twenty-five percent (25%) of members nominated to all committees of the Convention, the Board, and the boards of trustees and directors of the Related Entities shall come from churches with an average weekly worship attendance under 200, as reported by the church through the Annual Church Profile or its equivalent. It is desirable that no church shall have more than six (6) members serving at one (1) time on Convention committees, the Board, and the boards of directors or trustees of the Related Entities. Any addition beyond six (6) must be individually justified by the Committee on Nominations to the Convention or by the President and Vice-Presidents of the Convention to the Board. The Committee on Nominations shall include in its report at a minimum the name, church, home town, association, occupation, and sex of each nominee, the name of the committee or board on which the nominee is to serve together with such summary information as will make clear to this Convention the diversity and breadth of representation provided by the slates of nominees.

vii. The full report of the committee shall appear on the Convention's website beginning at least thirty-five (35) days in advance of the meeting of the Convention and to remain on such website through the commencement of such meeting of the Convention. The report may also appear on the Biblical Recorder website. The report shall also be published in the Convention's full Book of Reports which shall be posted on the Convention's Annual Meeting website at least 14 days prior to the commencement of the meeting. If necessary, the committee, after prior consultation with and approval from the respective board of trustees or directors of any applicable Related Entity, shall be allowed to amend its report to the Convention from the floor of the annual meeting to replace any previously reported nominee who has been determined to be unable to serve following the publication of the report of the committee to the Convention.

viii. A properly registered messenger may move to amend the committee report from the floor of the annual meeting only if the name of the person to be nominated from the floor of the Convention and the name of the nominee intended to be displaced has been furnished the Secretary of the Board of Directors at least 21 days prior to the commencement of the annual meeting. This information shall appear on the Convention's website and may also be available on the Biblical Recorder website, beginning at least fourteen (14) days in advance of the meeting of the Convention and shall remain on such website(s) through the commencement of such meeting of the Convention. In addition, biographical material relating to any person proposed to be nominated from the floor of the Convention shall be given to the Related Entity involved and to the Committee on Nominations at least one (1) week prior to such meeting.

b. Committee on Convention Meetings: The Committee on Convention Meetings will consist of eighteen (18) members serving three (3) year terms, six (6) of which shall rotate off each year. The committee shall work with Convention staff and the meeting venue in arranging for all meeting logistics, display booths, sound system and other arrangements necessary for all meetings of the Convention. Specific duties shall include:

ii. The committee shall recommend to the Convention a date and a place of meeting;

iii. The committee shall plan the program of the current year and preliminary plans for the next two annual meetings;

iv. The committee shall provide time prior to the last session for the introduction of any matters of business requiring a vote not scheduled on the program and will designate times when such matters will be considered. No new items of business directing the Convention or committing funds that require a vote may be introduced following the designated time prior to the last session;

v. The committee shall provide for the registration of messengers and visitors prior to and during the Convention; the chair of the committee or the chair's designee shall report to the messengers upon the call of the President; and the committee shall serve as a committee on credentials for any messenger whose qualification is in question;

vi. The committee shall deal with all other matters in connection with the annual meeting not provided for in the Articles and Bylaws.

vii. The chair of this committee shall appoint three (3) members to serve as the Teller Subcommittee. The subcommittee shall receive and count all ballots on votes taken during the Convention's meetings. The Teller Subcommittee chair will report results on all votes to the Convention President or presiding officer.

8. Other Convention Committees: The President of the Convention shall have the power to appoint temporary committees to assist the Convention in fulfilling its mission and/or to comply with directives from the messengers voting in a regular or special called meeting of the Convention. The duration of such committees shall be no longer than one year from the date of appointment of its members.

II. Board of Directors, Board Committees, Special Committees and Board Ministries

The Board of Directors (also referred to, from time to time, as "Board") has the powers and duties and responsibilities as charged by the Articles and Bylaws of the Convention.

A. Composition of the Board of Directors

1. At-Large Members.

a. For the purpose of achieving equitable geographical distribution, one (1) at-large member shall be elected from each region; one (1) additional at-large member shall be elected from each region for every ten thousand (10,000) members or additional fraction thereof, based on the most recent tabulation of annual church profiles as recorded by the Convention. At-large members shall be nominated by the Committee on Nominations with a limit of one (1) member from any church, and with careful attention to equitable geographical distribution within each region. The regions shall be those that appear on the map of North Carolina regions printed in the Convention Annual for the prior calendar year. Each at-large member shall be considered as being from the region in which his or her church's principal place of worship is located.

b. In the event at-large members of the Board move their church membership from a cooperating church in the region from which they were elected, their membership shall continue through the remainder of the calendar year. In addition, the membership of an at-large member shall immediately terminate in the event that (1) the member fails to attend at least one (1) meeting of the Board in each full calendar year of the member's term; (2) after the first full calendar year of the member's term, the member fails to attend at least fifty percent (50%) of the regular meetings of the Board measured from the beginning of the member's term; or (3) the member is removed for any of the reasons set forth in Bylaw IV.G. under the process described in that section.

No one who is employed by the Convention or any Related Entity of the Convention (as described in Bylaw I.C.7.a.ii), whether the salary be total or supplemented, shall be eligible for at-large membership on the Board, except that professors who teach at Fruitland Baptist Bible College on an adjunct basis (not full time employees) shall not be precluded from serving as members of the Board.

2. Nominations. In accordance with Bylaw I.C.7., the Committee on Nominations shall present to the annual meeting a slate of nominees for election, and after opportunity for further nominations from the floor is given, the at-large members of the Board shall be elected by a majority vote of the messengers of the Convention in annual meeting.

3. Election and Terms. Each at-large member of the Board shall be elected for a term of four (4) years with, as nearly as may be possible, one-fourth (1/4) of the membership being elected at each annual meeting. No person shall be eligible to succeed himself/herself on the Board after serving on the Board whether such service has ended through expiration of the term, resignation or otherwise until one (1) full term has elapsed; provided, however, that any such at-large Board member who shall have been elected to fill a vacancy of two (2) years or less, shall be eligible to be re-elected to a full term. The term shall begin on January 1, following the annual meeting of the Convention at which at-large members were elected; and shall end on December 31 following the Convention at which their successors were elected, unless sooner terminated; provided, however, the term of office of an at-large member who has not resigned, died, become disqualified, or been removed shall not expire until a successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

4. Vacancies. Any vacancy for an at-large member of the Board occurring between annual meetings of the Convention may be filled by the Executive Committee upon recommendation of the Committee on Nominations. Those elected shall serve through the remainder of the calendar year. The Convention shall at its next annual meeting fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

C. Powers and Duties of the Board of Directors: Except as specifically limited by the Articles and these Bylaws, the Board of Directors shall have the power to act for the Convention in the interim between meetings, and shall have general supervision of all ministries and programs supported by the Convention. Any action taken by the Board during the interim shall be binding on this Convention and be reported fully to this Convention at its next meeting. The Board shall:

1. Implement the budget as adopted by this Convention;
2. Review, study, and make recommendations to the Convention regarding the programs and ministries of the Convention;
3. Make a report of its activities during the year to the Convention during its annual meeting;
4. Recommend to the Convention the budget allocations of the Convention;
5. Employ a certified public accountant each year to make a complete audit of the books and accounts of the Convention; and
6. Receive and consider at its first meeting of each calendar year, from a nominating committee consisting of the Convention President and First and Second Vice-Presidents, a list of proposed nominees and a chairperson to serve on the Committee on Nominations and the Committee on Convention Meetings

D. Organization of the Board

1. Qualifications of the Officers. The President and Vice President shall be members of the Board; the Board Secretary shall be either a member of the Board or an employee of the Convention.
2. Election of the Officers. At the September meeting of the Board, the following officers shall be elected by a majority vote of the Board: a President, a Vice-President, and a Board Secretary. Their terms shall begin on January 1st following the September meeting of the Board at which the officers were elected and shall end on the later of December 31st of that calendar year or the election of their successors.
3. Powers and Duties of the Officers.
    a. The President shall serve as the chair of the Board and shall, when present, preside at all the meetings of the Board, and shall take any actions as directed by the Board, from time to time. The President shall have responsibilities of selecting committee members and serving on committees as set forth in Bylaw II.F.
    b. In the absence of the President, or in the event of his or her death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice-President shall exercise all powers and discharge all duties of the President, and shall take any actions as directed by the Board of Directors, including the responsibilities of selecting committee members and serving on committees as set forth in Bylaw II.F.
    c. The Board Secretary shall keep as permanent records: (1) minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors; (2) a record of all actions taken by the directors without a meeting; (3) a record of all actions taken by board committees and special committees of the Board; and (4) receive proposed resolutions from individuals, which shall be immediately sent to the Board President and Vice-President. In addition, the Board Secretary shall prepare the minutes of the meetings of the Convention and shall serve as Convention Secretary for executing such documents as directed by officers of the Convention or Board. The Board Secretary shall also perform any duties as may be assigned from time to time by the President of the Board.

E. Meetings of the Board

1. Regular and Special Meetings. The Board shall have three (3) regular meetings scheduled in January, May and September. In the event that any regular meeting of the Board is postponed due to inclement weather, the threat of inclement weather, or other emergency circumstances that would prevent a quorum from assembling due to the travel conditions, then the Executive Director-Treasurer and the President of the Board may call a substitute regular meeting of the Board. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the Executive Director-Treasurer and the President of the Board or by request from a majority of the Board members. In addition, in emergency circumstances which may preclude the assembling of the Board members in person, the Executive Director-Treasurer and the President of the Board may authorize that any regular or special meeting of the Board be conducted through the use of any means of communication by which all committee members may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting.

2. Notice of Meetings. At each January meeting of the Board, the newly-elected President of the Board shall provide notice of the dates for the next three (3) regular meetings of the Board (May, September and the following January). The Board Secretary shall provide written notice of these dates to all Board members within fourteen (14) days of the conclusion of the January Board meeting. In the event that the Executive Director-Treasurer and the President of the Board call a substitute regular meeting due to the postponement of a regular meeting as set forth above, then the Board Secretary shall, at least seven (7) days before the meeting, give notice thereof to the Board by any usual means of communication which is capable of being confirmed by the Board Secretary. The person or persons calling a special meeting of the Board shall, at least fourteen (14) days before the meeting, give notice thereof, specifying the purpose for which the meeting is called, by any usual means of communication which is capable of being confirmed by the Board Secretary. Any member of the Board may waive notice of any meeting held without proper call or notice, either before or after the meeting is held. Attendance by a member of the Board at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a Board member attends a meeting for the purpose of objection to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called. Failure of a member of the Board who did not attend a meeting held without proper call or notice to file with the Board Secretary his or her written objection to the holding of the meeting or to any specific action taken promptly after having knowledge of the action taken and of the insufficiency of notice shall constitute ratification of the action taken at the meeting.

3. Quorum and Voting. A majority of the Board in office immediately before the meeting begins shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board. Except as otherwise provided by law, the Articles or in these Bylaws, an act of the majority of the Board members voting at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board. A Board member who is present at a meeting of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action unless he or she objects at the beginning of the meeting (or promptly upon the Board member's arrival) to holding it or transacting business at the meeting, in which case the Board member's dissent or abstention from the action shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting, or unless he or she files a written notice of dissent or abstention to such action with the presiding officer of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or with the Board immediately after adjournment of the meeting. Such right of dissent or abstention shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of the action taken.

4. Conduct of Meeting. A Board member may only participate in a Board meeting in person except in emergency circumstances when the Executive Director-Treasurer and President of the Board have authorized the meeting to be held through means as described in the last sentence of Bylaw II.E.1 above.

F. Board Committees and Special Committees. The Board shall organize into board committees and special committees to assist in the planning and implementing of the work of the Convention as charged to the Board. Board committees are committees consisting only of members of the Board; special committees may have members who are not Board members. Special committees shall be considered standing committees of the Board. The composition and duties of special committees are detailed in Bylaws II.F.7. through II.F.11. below. Each committee and special committee shall have the authority to establish and dissolve subcommittees on an as needed basis except as specified below. None of the provisions of Bylaw II.F. shall apply to study committees appointed by the Board officers at the direction of the messengers at an annual meeting of the Convention or at the direction of the Board. The Board shall also have an Executive Committee as described in Bylaw II.F.6.

1. Selection of Committee Members. After their election at the September meeting of the Board, the President-elect and Vice-President-elect of the Board shall be responsible for determining what board committees are needed to assist the staff and Board in fulfilling their missions in the coming year. This may include committees to assist specific ministry areas of the Convention staff and structure, and committees to assist in other areas of Board concern, such as resolutions or the preservation of NC Baptist history. The structure and duties of board committees shall be approved by the Board of Directors at any regular or special called meeting of the Board. The President-elect and Vice-President-elect shall be responsible for assigning all Board members to a Board committee or a special committee. The assignment process and notification of assignments should be finished at least two (2) weeks prior to the January meeting of the Board; however, this shall not preclude the Board President and Vice-President from appointing a resolutions committee should the need arise after the January Board meeting. Also, the President-elect and Vice-president-elect will review and take into consideration any recommendation furnished by the Convention leadership associated with the work of a specific committee.

    a. Any member of a special committee of the Board who is not a member of the Board shall not be serving at the same time on any Convention committee, any other committee or special committee of the Board, or any board of the Convention's Related Entities. Any member of a special committee of the Board who is not a member of the Board (other than an ex-officio member) shall not be employed by the Convention, or any Related Entity of the Convention (as described in Bylaw I.C.7.a.ii), whether the salary be total or supplemented. Professors who teach at Fruitland Baptist Bible College on an adjunct basis (not full time employees) shall not be precluded from serving as members of a Board committee or special committee under this provision, except that such adjunct professors shall not be eligible for appointment to the Budget Special Committee.

    b. Any member of a special committee of the Board who is not a member of the Board may be removed for any of the reasons set forth in Bylaw IV.G. under the process described in that section.

2. Committee Meetings. All committees and special committees of the Board, except for the Articles and Bylaws Special Committee and Budget Special Committee, shall meet in January following the first session of the January Board meeting for the purpose of electing a chairperson. The chairperson's term shall begin upon election and shall end upon the election of a successor. The chair of each committee and special committee set forth in Bylaw II.F.7-11 below shall also serve on the Executive Committee of the Board. Committees will meet at times specified by the Chairperson or the Executive Director-Treasurer. Notice of meetings shall be given at least seven (7) days before the meeting by any usual means of communication of which is capable of being confirmed by the Board Secretary.

3. Quorum and Voting. A majority of any committee in office immediately before the meeting begins shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of such committee. Except as otherwise provided by law, the Articles or in these Bylaws, an act of the majority of the committee members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of such committee. The ex-officio non-voting committee members described in Bylaw II.F.5 shall not be counted in determining a quorum.

4. Conduct of Meeting. Upon approval of the Chairperson of the committee or special committee, any one or more committee members may participate in a committee meeting through the use of any means of communication by which all committee members may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting.

5. Ex-officio Committee Members. The President and Vice President shall serve as ex-officio voting members of all committees and subcommittees of the Board. The Executive Director-Treasurer and Board Secretary shall serve as ex-officio non-voting members of all committees and subcommittees.

   b. An individual who is a member of a church which by formal action of the Convention, its Board of Directors, or its Executive Committee has been determined to be not in friendly cooperation with the Convention in accordance with Article VI, shall not be eligible to serve as a trustee or director of any Related Entity, with the exception that an individual who is currently serving as a trustee or director of a Related Entity at the time such formal action is taken shall be allowed to serve the remainder of his or her term as a trustee or director;

   c. No individual who is employed, either on a full-time or part-time basis, by the Convention or any Related Entity of the Convention shall be eligible to serve on the board of directors or trustees of any Related Entity, except that professors who teach at Fruitland Baptist Bible College on an adjunct basis (not full time employees) shall not be precluded from serving under this provision;

These nominees shall be presented to the Convention for election following the procedures detailed in Bylaw I.C.7.a.;

   b. The term of office shall begin on January 1, following the annual meeting of the Convention at which members were elected; and shall end on December 31 following the Convention at which their successors were elected, unless sooner terminated; provided, however, the term of office of a trustee who has not resigned, died, become disqualified, or been removed shall not expire until a successor shall have been duly elected and qualified;

Whenever such Related Entity exercises this option in regard to a certain percentage of its total number of trustees or directors, never more than fifty percent (50%), the Board, upon the recommendation of its Budget Special Committee, shall reduce the Cooperative Program funds allocated to such Related Entity by the same percentage and shall make recommendations to the Convention, through the proposed annual budget, as to how such funds may be used to accomplish other significant tasks of the Convention and other entities described in this Bylaw III. Any reversal of this process involving restoration of any Cooperative Program funds will be subject to budgetary limitations and must have the approval of the Budget Special Committee of the Board, of the Board, and of this Convention. The trustees or directors of such Related Entity of this Convention shall make an annual report, no later than February 1 of each year, notifying the Committee on Nominations of the Convention and the Budget Special Committee of the Board concerning the exercising of such an option and of all vacancies to be filled. 5. Termination and Removal of Trustees and Directors

   a. If for any reason a member of a board shall cease to qualify as a trustee or director of a Related Entity, membership on any board shall be thereby terminated, effective immediately upon the date of the disqualifying event. Any vacancy on a board may be filled by recommendation of the Committee on Nominations, after prior consultation with and approval from the respective Related Entity, to the Executive Committee until the next annual meeting of the Convention, and the Convention shall at its next annual meeting fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

   b. The board of trustees or directors of a Related Entity by affirmative vote of three fourths (3/4) of the entire membership given in regular annual meeting or in a special meeting called for the purpose, shall have the power to remove from office any trustee or director for cause considered sufficient by such board, but only after fifteen (15) days written notice to such trustee or director, and an opportunity to be heard by the board.

Amended November 2022

PROCEEDINGS 194TH ANNUAL MEETING

November 10-11, 2024
BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION OF NORTH CAROLINA
Koury Convention Center
Greensboro, North Carolina

Angela Kilby, Board Secretary

Theme: "On Mission Together"
Revelation 7:9-12

Monday Evening, November 6, 2023

1. Quintell Hill, Baptist State Convention of North Carolina (convention) president, called the 193rd Annual Meeting of the convention to order at 6:32 p.m. following a concert by N.C. Baptist Singers and Orchestra.

2. Hill thanked the N.C. Baptist Singers and Orchestra made up of N.C. Baptists passionate about worship. Hill reminded messengers that on Saturday, November 11, we would celebrate Veteran's Day. He invited Chaplain Major General Doug Carver to lead in a time of celebration of our freedom.

3. Major General Carver shared that in 1939 Jewish composer Irving Berlin penned the words to a song titled "God Bless America", expressing his gratitude to the Lord for the freedoms we enjoy as a nation. At the same time, he was reflecting on the threat of a world war. The first stanza of the song reads:

   "While the storms clouds gather far across the sea,
   Let us swear allegiance to a land that's free,
   Let us all be grateful for a land so fair,
   As we raise our voices in solemn prayer."

   No doubt Berlin was thinking, as he composed this great song, about other lands where his people were being hunted down, beaten, persecuted, arrested and killed. He put together a song that simply gave gratitude to almighty God for a nation where all men and women are created equal. That we are endowed by our creator with certain inalienable rights, among them life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Today, by the grace of God, we still enjoy our liberty in this nation while celebrating our many freedoms including the freedom of religion. Members of the armed services continue to serve sacrificially as America's heroic guardians of freedom. Major General Carver said that this night we salute the over 43 million men and women who have worn the nation's cloth over the past 247 years. He took a moment to ask messengers to salute the Vietnam veterans who were present. He also honored service men and women actively serving now as well as the Southern Baptist chaplains who preach, pastor, shepherd, stand and pray with them in this ministry throughout the world. Major General Carver asked all service members serving through active duty or reserves and those retired to stand as messengers honored them. He concluded with prayer.

4. Messengers viewed an informative video welcoming them to the annual meeting and inviting them to experience what it looks like to live on mission together – worshiping together, praying together, learning from God's Word, and encouraging one another as the body of Christ. The video shared the theme of "On Mission Together" and theme verses, Revelation 7:9-12, and also gave important guidelines and instructions about the annual meeting. This information could also be found in the printed Biblical Recorder, online at ncannualmeeting.org and on the N.C. Baptist mobile app. The video also explained that parliamentarians are available prior to sessions and at the close of sessions to help with any questions related to convention business. Messengers were invited to visit both exhibit halls.

5. Hill began the evening with a report from the Committee on Convention Meetings. He asked messengers to locate their envelope of ballots received at registration and explained that the ballots would be raised for any voting taking place on the floor. He then recognized Bob Lowman, executive director of Metrolina Baptist Association and chair of the Committee on Convention Meetings, to bring recommendations from the committee. Lowman stated the committee was bringing several recommendations. The first motion related to the registration report. He reported that as of 5:00 p.m., 417 pastors, 265 church staff members, and 477 laity were registered for a total of 1,159 messengers. In addition, 223 visitors had registered, providing a grand total of 1,382 in attendance.

   Lowman, on behalf of the Committee on Convention Meetings, moved that those registered and yet to register constitute a quorum for the 193rd annual meeting of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. There was no discussion. Messengers voted, and the motion carried.

6. Hill recognized Lowman for the next recommendation from the Committee on Convention Meetings. On behalf of the committee, Lowman moved to limit all speeches on matters to come before the 2023 convention, which included discussion, debate and nominations, to a maximum of three (3) minutes each to give more messengers the opportunity to speak during business sessions. Coming from a committee, the motion did not require a second. There was no discussion. A vote was taken, and the motion carried.

7. Hill recognized Lowman for the next motion. Lowman, on behalf of the committee, moved that the schedule printed in the program constitute the agenda for this convention. Again, coming from a committee, the motion did not require a second. There was no discussion, and the motion carried.

8. Lowman was recognized for the next motion: The Committee on Convention Meetings moved that the 2024 annual meeting be held November 4-5 at the Koury Convention Center in Greensboro. The motion did not require a second. There was no discussion, and the motion carried.

   Lowman reminded messengers that Tuesday, November 5, 2024 is the day of the United States presidential election. He encouraged messengers to prepare in advance for this important day by voting early.

9. Lowman said the Committee on Convention Meetings would like to make two final motions as recommendations for individuals to deliver the convention sermon for the next two years. As a reminder, the committee is permitted to recommend convention speakers for up to two years in advance in order to potentially secure those whose calendar fills up quickly.

Lowman, on behalf of the Committee on Convention Meetings, recommended that Dr. Daniel Akin, president of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, deliver the 2024 annual meeting sermon. Dr. Akin will have served as president of the seminary for 20 years in 2024, and the committee would like to take the opportunity to highlight the incredible work of the school and Dr. Akin's faithful service to that institution and our state. Coming from a committee, the motion did not require a second, and there was no discussion. Hill called for a vote, and the motion carried.

On behalf of the Committee on Convention Meetings, for the 2025 annual meeting of the convention, Lowman recommended Shane Pruitt to deliver the convention sermon. Pruitt currently serves as the national NextGen Director for the North American Mission Board. Hill stated that, coming from a committee, the motion did not require a second. There was no discussion, and Hill proceeded with the vote. The motion carried.

This concluded the Committee on Convention Meetings report.

10. Hill recognized Richard Brunson, executive director-treasurer of Baptists on Mission for a report. Brunson shared that, as N.C. Baptists, God has given us many opportunities to be involved in short-term missions across our state, nation and world. God uses short-term projects to change lives – not just the lives of the people being served but lives of the volunteers. Oftentimes, God uses short-term missions to call people into vocational ministry and vocational missions. Messengers were given a booklet called "Projects Designed to Involve Your Church in Missions" which has information about state projects like mission camps, rebuild centers, disaster relief, medical and dental buses and health screening ministry. The booklet contains information about national partnerships in the Appalachian coal fields, Pennsylvania, New England, the Rocky Mountains region, Hawaii and Alaska. There is information on international partnerships in Cuba, Guatemala, Armenia, Kenya, South Africa, Hungary, Ukraine, Moldova, and others. Brunson said he was glad to have Asatur Nahapetyan, general secretary of the Armenian Baptists, in attendance. He shared that two years ago Nahapetyan was at our annual meeting and talked about the Yazidi Kurdish Church in Armenia. He stated that this past week volunteer teams from North Carolina were in Armenia and worked on the first Yazidi church building. The Yazidi Kurdish church in Armenia is active and growing. They have a vision for reaching Yazidis all around the world. The building is almost finished. Most Yazidi Kurds worship the stars and sun, but these Yazidi Kurds are worshipping God's only son, Jesus. God is doing amazing things in Armenia. Brunson introduced Asatur Nahapetyan who shared that Armenia for the last three years has been through many difficulties including war and refugees, but he thanked North Carolina Baptists for their help with the Yazidi project and the difference they are making in Armenia. He asked those in attendance to continue to pray. God is using N.C. Baptists to make a difference in Armenia, Ukraine, Moldova, Kenya and South Africa.

11. Hill announced that N.C. Baptists were blessed to have a partnership with the International Mission Board (IMB), and IMB president, Dr. Paul Chitwood, was present to take part in celebrating missionaries being sent from N.C. Baptist churches. The IMB's vision is taken directly from Revelation 7:9 which was the annual meeting theme verse this year. The IMB desires to see "a great multitude that no one can number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb…". Hill told messengers they have a part in that work because of prayers and generous giving to N.C. Baptists. N.C. Baptists have been the top givers to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for several decades, and N.C. Baptists are among the strongest sending churches with more missionaries being sent from this state convention than any other. As part of the evening's service, messengers would hear from several N.C. Baptists who are preparing to devote their lives to serving unreached people groups in different parts of the world. Hill announced the livestream would be paused during the missionary portion of the service for security purposes, and he asked messengers to refrain from posting photos on social media.

12. Hill invited the N.C. Baptist Singers and Orchestra to begin the Sending Celebration by singing praises to the Lord. Following the time of worship through singing, Ashanti Glass read scripture including II Corinthians 5:21, I Peter 2:24 and Romans 5:8-10.

13. Messengers viewed an IMB video, and Dr. Paul Chitwood thanked N. C. Baptists for being on mission, for the partnership and for the way North Carolina is leading the broader Baptist family in engaging lostness around the world. IMB missionaries gave witness in 122 countries around the world the past year. Chitwood said it was a privilege to witness several sent out from N.C. Baptist churches. A service like this has never been done before in the 178-year history of the IMB. Sending celebrations always include missionaries from multiple states, but this night was unique in that we would celebrate IMB missionaries sent out by North Carolina churches. N.C. Baptist churches are committed to supporting those missionaries through prayer and through giving.

Chitwood delivered a sermon titled "Lessons Learned from Four Lepers" based on II Kings 7:3-4.

- The four lepers were honest. The future of the entire city began to change.
- God does not expect you to do what only God can do. He does expect us to tell others what He has done.
- This is a day of good news. The world's greatest problem is lostness, and it is everyone's problem. God has already solved the problem. The world's population has doubled since 1970, and every day 173,451 people die lost. Lostness is a growing problem, and our prayers and generosity must grow as well.

14. Chitwood introduced numerous IMB missionaries from North Carolina who shared testimonies, some live and others through video. N.C. Baptists executive director-treasurer, Todd Unzicker, joined Chitwood and the missionaries on stage and invited N.C. Baptist officers and spouses, executive leadership and spouses, convention staff and sending churches to join in prayer over the missionaries.

15. The N.C. Baptist Singers and Orchestra concluded the Sending Celebration with a reprise of "Hymn of Heaven".

16. Hill thanked Dr. Chitwood for the challenging sermon and asked N.C. Baptists to continue to pray for these missionaries as they take the gospel to the ends of the earth. He invited messengers to visit the exhibit hall for a special ice cream social hosted by Provision (formerly N.C. Baptist Foundation); greet outgoing president Clay Warf; and meet Harry Nelson, Provision's president-elect. Hill closed the evening session with prayer.

Tuesday Morning, November 7, 2023

17. The Tuesday morning session began at 9 a.m. as Hill called the session to order. He directed messengers' attention to the screens for a few announcements and invited Jason Miller, convention first vice president, to assume duties of the chair.

18. Janet Demeny, N.C. Baptist board member and Care Ministry Coordinator for Peninsula Baptist Church, read Revelation 4:2-3, 8-11, and the North Carolina Renewing Worship Band led in a time of worship. Jennifer Rushing, member of Hopewell Baptist Church in Monroe, opened the session with prayer.

19. Jason Miller, pastor of Dutch Cove Baptist in Canton and convention first vice president, said it was his privilege to share more about our convention president, Quintell Hill. Hill serves as pastor of Multiply Community Church in Monroe. Raised in Birmingham, Alabama, Hill is a graduate of the University of Mobile and Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is currently pursuing his Ph.D. in preaching from Anderson University in South Carolina. He has a passion to see the church on earth reflect the church in heaven. He believes that the unity of the body of Christ gives gospel witness to a lost world and that this unity comes as a result of our love for one another motivated by Christ's redemptive love. He truly embodies the On Mission Together passion personally in his ministry and as the leader of this convention. Miller prayed over Hill then invited him to deliver the president's address.

20. For his address, Hill referred to Luke 10:25-37 where we read about the God Samaritan. Hill posed the question, "Who are we a neighbor to?" and spoke of the four fruits of neighborly love:

- True love selflessly depends on the love of God that is revealed in Christ
- True love sees the needs of others as a result of the love of God revealed in Christ
- True love stops and shows compassion as a result of the love of God revealed in Christ
- True love sacrifices its resources continuously as a result of the love of God revealed in Christ

21. Hill concluded his address with another question, "What is so good about the Samaritan? The answer is 'nothing', but there is something good about Jesus who changes a bunch of nobodies, turning them into somebodies who tell everybody about somebody, and His name is Jesus."

22. Messengers viewed a North Carolina Missions Offering video and an On Mission Together video.

23. Miller announced the time had arrived for the first fixed order of business, the election of convention officers. Messengers wishing to nominate individuals for the office of president, first vice president and second vice president were invited to the platform to present their nomination.

Caroll Anthony, Philadelphia Baptist in Marshville, nominated Quintell Hill for convention president. There were no other nominations, and Quintell Hill was elected 2024 convention president.

Hill resumed the duty of chair and called for nominations for convention first vice president. Dennis Thurman, Crestview Baptist in Canton, nominated Jason Miller. There were no other nominations, and Jason Miller was elected 2024 convention first vice president.

Hill called for nominations for convention second vice president. Michael Cloar, Northside Church in Wilmington, nominated James Allen Murray. There were no additional nominations, and James Allen Murray was elected 2024 convention second vice president.

This concluded the fixed order of business for officer elections.

24. Hill recognized Zeb Cook, president of the convention's board of directors to bring the board's first report. Cook greeted messengers and informed them that the board of directors' full report could be found on pages 15-19 of the 2023 Book of Reports, at ncannualmeeting.org and on the N.C. Baptist mobile app. He reported that in January of 2023 Casey Norkett, board president at the time, received a proposal from the Biblical Recorder's board of directors. In accordance with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina's bylaws, he appointed five members to a study committee to review this proposal. Those individuals included:

Caleb Duvick, Two Cities Church, Winston-Salem, chair
Trent Craven, Pleasant Home Baptist, Millers Creek
Jennifer Rushing, Hopewell Baptist, Monroe
Ross Smith, Grace Baptist, West Asheville
Bartley Wooten, Beulaville Baptist, Beulaville

With the president's permission, Cook invited Ross Smith, member of the committee, to join him on stage and share comments.

Smith reported that the study committee's task was to review a request from the Biblical Recorder's board to consider the impact of proposed changes in the Biblical Recorder's governing documents and operations as they related to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Since July 2022, the Biblical Recorder and Baptist State Convention of North Carolina have been in a temporary management agreement which will terminate at the end of 2023. The proposal received in January of 2023 would, in essence, extend the current working arrangement between the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Biblical Recorder and recommend changes necessary to facilitate that ongoing arrangement. In addition to engaging in a detailed study of the proposal itself, as required by convention bylaws, the committee interviewed current staff of the Biblical Recorder and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and reviewed the working arrangements of other Baptist state news outlets. The committee's work led them to the recommendations seen in the report starting on page 15 of the Book of Reports. The report presents recommendations that align with the Biblical Recorder's original proposal with only minor changes. The Biblical Recorder would maintain its status as a related entity of the convention and retain but reduce the size of its board of directors. The Biblical Recorder board would continue exercising its responsibilities for editorial oversight and approve an operational plan on an annual basis.

These recommendations have already been unanimously affirmed by the Biblical Recorder board of directors and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina board of directors. Smith thanked his fellow committee members for their diligent work throughout the process and commended the Biblical Recorder's managing editor, Chad Austin, for his excellent work and journalistic integrity. The committee hopes to see this work continue for years to come as the Biblical Recorder keeps us informed and inspires us to be a movement of churches on mission together.

Board president Zeb Cook presented the motion: The board of directors moves that messengers to the 2023 annual meeting approve the Biblical Recorder Study Committee report as it appears on pages 15-17 of the Book of Reports. Hill stated that, coming from the board of directors, the motion did not require a second. He opened the floor for discussion, and there was none. Messengers voted, and the motion carried.

Hill recognized Cook for another motion. Cook stated that, in light of messenger approval of the study committee's report, the Biblical Recorder has requested changes to its bylaws. A redline version of these changes was available on the annual meeting website and the N.C. Baptist mobile app. The N.C. Baptist board of directors unanimously approved the changes at its meeting in September.

On behalf of the board of directors, Zeb Cook, board president, moved that the messengers approve the adoption of the amendments to the Biblical Recorder's bylaws. Hearing no discussion, Hill called for a vote, and the motion was approved.

Hill recognized Cook for the remainder of the board report.

25. Cook stated the bylaws of the convention provide for resolutions to be submitted to the N.C. Baptist board of directors by August 31. The board of directors did receive one resolution from pastor and board member, Matthew Tarpley, First Baptist Lake Waccamaw, titled "Resolution on Equal Protection of the Preborn".

Board officers appointed a five-member Resolutions Committee to study this resolution. The members were:

Robert Hefner, Pleasant Garden Baptist, Pleasant Garden, chair
Justin Alexander, First Baptist, Hendersonville
Jennifer Rushing, Hopewell Baptist, Monroe
Aaron Wallace, Hephzibah Baptist, Wendell
Rebecca Wroten, Mount Pisgah Baptist, Supply

Cook stated the Resolutions Committee worked cooperatively with Matthew Tarpley to establish this particular resolution.

On behalf of the board of directors, board president Zeb Cook moved that the messengers adopt the "Resolution on Equal Protection of the Preborn" as presented in the Book of Reports and requested that Jennifer Rushing, Resolutions Committee member, be allowed to speak for it.

The chair recognized Jennifer Rushing to speak in favor of the motion. Rushing said that during the review of the resolution, the committee immediately recognized the importance of standing for the sanctity of human life. The committee was grateful that Pastor Tarpley shares that commitment and submitted a resolution. The Christian Life and Public Affairs Special Committee of the board, working alongside convention staff, has made great strides in recent years to support pregnancy resource centers, advocate for stronger legal protections for the preborn, and equipped churches to serve the vulnerable in their communities. According to the committee's research, North Carolina Baptists have not passed a pro-life resolution in many years, at least since the beginning of the 21st century. In addition, the recent overturning of Roe v. Wade by the U.S. Supreme Court provides an appropriate occasion to speak to the issue. The committee would like the convention to take this opportunity to say loud and clear that we believe all humans, no matter how small, are made in the image of God and are worthy of dignity, honor and protection. She asked that we not stop at passing resolutions. Let this be a call to action. The committee hoped the resolution will fan a flame in the convention to show compassion for mothers and fathers facing life decisions. To stand beside our brothers and sisters on the front lines in pregnancy centers. To speak up for legislation that honors preborn lives and lead our churches to be places where families receive the love and support they need to thrive. The committee hoped the messengers would vote to support the resolution but, more than that, they hoped that North Carolina Baptists would show and share the love of Jesus with vulnerable mothers and their preborn children.

Hill called for any further discussion, and there was none. He then recognized Robert Hefner who served as chair of the committee to speak to amend the motion.

Hefner, on behalf of the Resolutions Committee, moved that the following amendment be made to the resolution as presented. Paragraph five begins with the words "whereas North Carolina Baptists". Following the word "Baptists", Hefner moved that these words be added: "North Carolina Baptist leaders and the Christian Life and Public Affairs (CLPA) Special Committee of the board of directors". After those words are added, Hefner asked messengers to see the year 2022 in that paragraph. He further moved to strike the following words that begin with "and" and end with "preborn" before the semicolon. He also moved that messengers amend paragraph five in the second line following the words "Greensboro, North Carolina" by striking the two words "continue to". Hefner stated he would, at the appropriate time, like to speak in favor of the amendments. Hill said, coming from the Resolutions Committee, the motion did not require a second. He recognized Hefner to speak to the motion. Hefner said the committee recognized it was their responsibility to bring before the messengers of the convention resolutions that are both clear and that invite the greatest majority of our body of messengers to affirm. This resolution is an opportunity for us, as North Carolina Baptists, to make a clear and broad statement about what we believe on a specific matter at a specific time. The Resolutions Committee was made aware of potential proposed amendments to the resolution brought before the messengers this date. Members of the committee had amicable conversations with some of those who would have made amendments to the resolution. On behalf of the Resolutions Committee and those conversations, the committee presents this amendment to address changes in paragraph 4 and paragraph 5. It was the desire of the committee that messengers accept the resolution as presented with the amendments.

Hill called for any discussion on the amendment. Following brief discussion, Hefner was asked for a reading of the resolution with the amendment. Hefner read the recommended amended paragraph four: "WHEREAS North Carolina Baptists, North Carolina Baptist executive leaders and the Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee of the North Carolina Baptist board of directors have fought for the value of the preborn through the funding and placement of five ultrasound machines in pregnancy resource centers throughout North Carolina just since 2022; and North Carolina Baptists and Baptist churches have been engaged in the fight for preborn life through support of pregnancy resource centers …" (the remainder of this paragraph was unchanged). Hefner then read the recommended amendment to paragraph five: "RESOLVED that we as the messengers of the BSCNC meeting November 6-7, 2023 in Greensboro, NC, will advocate for the equal protection of the preborn …" (this recommended amendment strikes the words "continue to").

Hill recognized Jessie Watkins, messenger from Friendship Southern Baptist, Concord, who spoke in favor of the amendment. Watkins said it strengthens the intent and purpose behind it. He appreciated the Resolutions Committee's work and said he believed the resolution is not about the executive leadership but what the entire convention has tried to do. In 2019, the Southern Baptist Convention passed a resolution condemning legislation from states, specifically North Carolina, that allowed the unjust murder of the preborn. That resolution encouraged churches to take action. Watkins stated he was encouraged by the president's address that we must take action.

Hill recognized Arthur Bien, messenger from Fountain Baptist, Forest City, who recommended an amendment to the final paragraph. This recommendation was ruled out of order, and John Small, legal counsel, explained that the convention must deal with the current amendment on the floor. The current amendment on the floor could be amended, but if the recommendation was for a separate amendment, it would have to come after the current one was dealt with.

Hill recognized Matthew Dupuy, messenger from Rocky Hock Baptist, Edenton, who called the question which received a second. Hill asked for a vote to call the question, and the motion passed.

Hill recognized Hefner for clarification on the recommended amendment. Hefner stated the messengers would vote on the amendment from the Resolutions Committee as read earlier. Hill proceeded to the vote, and the motion carried.

Hill called for any further discussion on the resolution as amended. He recognized Arthur Bien, Fountain Baptist, Forest City. Bien moved that the final paragraph reading "RESOLVED that establishing equal justice and protection under our laws for the preborn children of North Carolina, from fertilization to natural birth…" be amended by striking the word "natural" due to the fact that C-sections are not considered "natural birth". Hefner stated he received this as a friendly amendment and felt comfortable with striking the word "natural" and leaving the wording as "to birth". The motion received a second. Hill called for a vote to approve the amended resolution, and the motion carried.

(Recording secretary note: It was later recognized that this amendment was not voted on separately prior to approval of the amended resolution, and this item of business was revisited during miscellaneous business. See miscellaneous business, #37.)

This concluded the first report from the board of directors.

26. Hill invited messengers to attend one of the scheduled breakouts following the session conclusion. Angela Honeycutt, board member and messenger from Big Rock Creek Baptist, Bakersville, was joined by two IMB missionaries on stage and closed the session with prayer.

Tuesday Afternoon, November 7, 2023

27. Tuesday afternoon's session began with Virgil Dwyer, pastor of First Baptist, Stanleyville, reading Titus 2:11-14 and Hebrews 10:22-23. The N.C. Baptist Renewing Worship Band led messengers in a time of worship through music.

28. Kendra Joyner, Children's Ministry director, Green Street Baptist, was joined on stage by two IMB missionaries. Joyner opened the session with prayer.

29. Messengers viewed a session opener video which included pertinent announcements, and Hill called the session to order at 1:49 p.m. Hill announced a correction was needed because the morning session had concluded with one item left unfinished. The messengers were to vote on the final amendment to the resolution on the floor and then vote on the resolution as amended. He announced that this item of business would be revisited during miscellaneous business.

30. Hill said messengers would now hear from the executive director-treasurer (EDT) for N.C. Baptists, Todd Unzicker. Unzicker has served as the EDT now for over two years and has led the convention well. From day one, N.C. Baptists have heard about being a movement of churches on mission together. Hill said as he has had the privilege to speak in churches across the state, he has tried to encourage churches to do what our EDT has been saying – to be on mission together. Hill said he has seen that spirit among God's people. Unzicker has encouraged local churches to partner together to reach the unreached by planting churches, sending missionaries, training the next generation and serving our communities. North Carolina Baptists rank at the top in missionaries being sent to the nations and increasing support of missions through the Cooperative Program and other offerings. Hill said he loves the work of advancing the mission across our state, and he welcomed EDT Todd Unzicker to bring the EDT address and share about those great Kingdom efforts.

31. Unzicker thanked the convention staff for working tirelessly the whole year. He said it was his honor to follow one of the finest leaders in the country, Milton Hollifield. Hollifield led the convention with integrity and excellence. Unzicker also thanked his wife, Ashley, for her role in allowing him to serve as the N.C. Baptist EDT.

Unzicker reminded messengers that "on mission together" is not just a slogan; it is who we are. North Carolina Baptists are a movement of churches on mission together. We want to demonstrate the gospel like Jesus did by taking the gospel to those who are hurting in our state and around the world. We are a convention of over 2,900 independent, autonomous, partnering churches that are on mission. We are on mission together in four ways:

- To train the next generation to advance the gospel
- To reach a lost and dying world with the gospel
- To send church planters from local church bodies to see multiplication happen
- To serve the needs of our communities and churches across the state with the hope of the gospel

It is God's inspired, inerrant, infallible and all-sufficient Word that says the primary way a lost and dying world will know we are His is because of the way we love one another.

We are training the next generation. Messengers viewed a video about training through summer camps where this year over 400 students received Christ, more than 700 made a decision to recommit their lives, and over 500 felt a call to ministry. College students are committing two years of their lives to live on mission. Unzicker said we are on mission training the next generation through our BeDoTell camps and through the Go2Years initiative. Go2Years mobilizes every graduate and young professional to give two years to the mission of God, either with a church plant in the United States or overseas with a missionary team. In North Carolina, we have some amazing universities. We want to mobilize graduates and young professionals to take the gospel to the ends of the earth. He has wired this generation to live a life with purpose greater than themselves. What greater purpose is there than the Great Commission? Because of the generosity of North Carolina Baptists, we are able to train the next generation. Missions giving is also supporting higher education. Through Fruitland Baptist Bible College (Fruitland) and Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary (SEBTS), we are equipping men and women for ministry. In September, Fruitland had 33 new graduates of which eleven were Spanish-speaking students. We are discipling the nations to take the gospel to the ends of the earth. This is what we mean by training. We are training, through a partnership with the College at Southeastern, in ways to take the gospel to the North Carolina Department of Public Safety, partnering with them to take the gospel into prisons all throughout our state. This is what Jesus has called us to do. Because of the on mission together spirit, the gospel is reaching to the ends of the earth. As North Carolina Baptists, we continue to be the top Lottie Moon giving state for nearly two decades. Unzicker said that later in the day messengers would have the opportunity to approve a proposed 2024 budget that will empower churches to devote more mission dollars to where Jesus is not known by sending 50 percent of every dollar given to N.C. Baptists to our national Great Commission partners.

Messengers viewed a SendNC video about church planting and how churches are God's "plan A" to reach a lost and dying world. Unzicker said that through SendNC, our church planting network, our church planters see better benefits and more training than any church planting network. As North Carolina's population continues to explode, we need 300 sending churches that send one missionary or planter every year just to keep up with population growth. We need to send our best. We believe the Great Commission is always accomplished through multiplication. We believe the next step here in North Carolina is to help more churches replicate and multiply because the Great Commission is always completed through multiplication rather than addition. The convention staff is placed all around the state, and the Great Commission catalysts' primary assignment is to serve the churches. The convention also has specific ministry strategists for music, worship, children, youth, women, discipleship and church revitalization, and these strategists are available to serve the churches. This is us being on mission together. The staff listened to our churches, and in the past year we have seen 210 churches engage in the revitalization process. Over 30 struggling churches have boldly stepped out to be fostered or replanted. We have seen the number of empty pulpits in North Carolina decrease by 20 percent this past year. This is because we are on mission together. We want to find out where God is working and join Him there. One area where God is clearly working in our associations and churches is the partnership with Pregnancy Resource Centers in our communities. Most often, these volunteers and staff come from our churches. It is incredible to see N.C. Baptist churches taking a stand for the sanctity of every human life from womb to tomb. Because of North Carolina Baptists' generosity, this year N.C. Baptists was able to place four ultrasound units in strategic Pregnancy Resource Centers around the state through our partnership with the Psalm 139 Project. While people make statements that they are pro-life, N.C. Baptists live it!

Another significant thing N.C. Baptists are doing in being on mission together is reaching into our communities to help the hurting through Baptists on Mission. In 2023 alone, Disaster Relief volunteers have responded to the flooding in Vermont, a hurricane in Florida, and wildfires in Hawaii. Unzicker stated that, during this meeting, wildfires were happening just miles away from the Fruitland Baptist Bible College campus. On Sunday evening, N.C. Baptists responded and are working now to help first responders because that's what N.C. Baptists do. We run to those who are hurting and pray for God to use us.

Through mission camps, rebuild centers and a host of mission partnerships, volunteers from N.C. Baptist churches are showing and sharing the love of Jesus in their neighborhoods across the nations and even to the war-torn parts of the world like Ukraine and Israel. Just yesterday, teams left and are partnering with feeding teams in Israel.

Next year, we will participate in ServeNC. We are not just training the next generation, we not only want to reach the lost, we not only want to send missionaries and church planters, but we want to serve North Carolina. In 2024, churches can mobilize people out of their seats and into the streets. There is no special training although N.C. Baptists does offer resources, but Unzicker challenged messengers to serve their community with any service project they may choose the week of August 3-10, 2024 so that every church is serving every community. The church has been on the sideline for far too long. It is time to stand in the gap where our community is hurting and searching for hope. Let's show love where people are instead of waiting for people to show up where we are! Let's show up in our schools, our markets, our Pregnancy Resource Centers, the firehouse and other public spheres. By signing up for ServeNC, messengers would simply promise to say, "We are going to show up in our community because we want to point them to the one who showed up for us. His name is Jesus." The Bible says that the world will know Him by the way we love one another. Let's show up in every community in North Carolina.

Messengers viewed a video highlighting ServeNC. Unzicker explained we are doing ServeNC because we want to bring glory and honor to the Lord Jesus Christ, and we want to see people come to faith in Jesus Christ. The convention will provide evangelism resources to allow leaders of the churches to be able to train their people in soul-winning and taking the gospel across the streets and across the globe. Thirdly, we want to demonstrate the gospel. They might not like our message, but we want them to love that we are there. Fourthly, we know we are a movement of churches on mission together in that this gives us a specific task and specific goal – that we can unite and every single church can love every single community. What if we told a different story to a lost and dying world about who Baptists really are? Unzicker challenged all messengers to sign up for SendNC.

32. Messengers viewed a Baptists on Mission video featuring the medical and dental buses as well as a Revitalization Ministry video.

33. Hill announced the time had been reached for a fixed order of business which was the presentation of the 2024 Cooperative Program budget. He reminded messengers to remember the "Guidelines for Conducting Convention Business" included in the current issue of the Biblical Recorder.

34. Hill recognized Zeb Cook, board president, for the report. Cook explained that the board of directors has the responsibility of presenting the proposed budget to the messengers which happens through the work of the Budget Special Committee. Cook asked the chair to recognize Aaron Wallace, chair of the Budget Special Committee, to present the proposed 2024 Cooperative Program budget and the North Carolina Missions Offering goal on behalf of the board of directors. Hill recognized Wallace.

Wallace stated it was his privilege to serve on the Budget Special Committee in 2023. He said he got to see the glory of God working in and among His people through the budget process. He encouraged anyone asked to serve in this capacity to say "yes".

Wallace said he was encouraged by the commitment of North Carolina Baptists to financially support the missions and ministry efforts here in the state and with our global partners. He shared that many churches are committing to give even more missions dollars sacrificially to this gospel movement and asked messengers to turn their attention to the screens and celebrate a few of those churches and the work being done.

Wallace instructed messengers to locate the 2024 budget booklet they received when they registered. The budget could also be accessed at ncannualmeeting.org/budget or on the N.C. Baptist mobile app.

Wallace shared a brief financial report that gave reasons to celebrate and rejoice in what God is doing in and through North Carolina Baptists. The Southern Baptist Convention had recently released its financial report for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2023. The numbers testified to the incredible generosity of N.C. Baptist churches and our desire to reach our neighbors here and around the world with the gospel:

- N.C. Baptist churches gave $14.2 million to support international missions through the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, leading all state conventions for the 19th year in a row!
- Annie Armstrong offerings from N.C. Baptist churches totaled over $7.1 million, putting N.C. Baptists back in the #1 position for giving among all state conventions!
- North Carolina Baptists set a new record by sending $13.2 million of our Cooperative Program receipts to support our global ministry partners. That is higher than any other year in our history.
- In total, the convention received $49.9 million from N.C. Baptist churches in Cooperative Program receipts and special offerings. Over $34.2 million of those receipts went directly to support national and international mission causes – that was 68.5% of mission receipts, the highest in our history! North Carolina was the number two state convention in total support of SBC missions.

Wallace asked messengers to turn to pages 4 and 5 of the budget booklet, and he presented the proposed 2024 Cooperative Program budget from the board of directors.

On behalf of the board of directors, Wallace presented a proposed budget of $31 million for 2024. This represented a $1.5 million dollar increase from the 2023 $29.5 million budget approved the previous year. Current projections showed the year would end with CP receipts totaling 99 percent of the 2023 budget.

The proposed allocation to our Great Commission partners increased from 48% to 50% of the overall budget. The convention had been looking at this goal for the last 17 years and began increasing the percentage allocated toward the goal of 50% that N.C. Baptists committed to nearly 100 years ago.

Wallace outlined major changes to the budget for 2024:

- Global Missions allocation increased from 48% to 50% of the overall budget
- N.C. Ministry Group allocations increased by $130,000 which included a 6% increase in compensation for salaried staff and 7% increase for hourly staff
- Allocations for state ministry partners increased by $30,000

Wallace, on behalf of the board of directors, moved that the 2024 Cooperative Program budget be adopted as printed in the budget booklet. Hill stated that, coming from the board of directors, the motion did not require a second. He opened the floor for discussion.

Todd Fletcher, messenger from Beulah Baptist in Tryon, moved that the 2024 budget be amended to increase the budget of Fruitland Baptist Bible College (Fruitland) from 2.29% of the annual budget to 2.79% of the annual budget and to change the increase to Global Partners to 1.5% of the annual budget with the final budget to Global Partners being 49.5% and 50.5% to the state convention. The motion received a second. Hill permitted Fletcher to speak to the proposed amendment. Fletcher thanked the Budget Committee for their hard work. He said he is not a native of North Carolina nor an alumnus of Fruitland; however, he has served in other state conventions that do not have such a valuable resource, and he sees firsthand how valuable Fruitland is. Hearing how the nations are moving to North Carolina and how more pulpits need to be filled, Fletcher said we are in need of Fruitland's services like never before. This motion would increase Fruitland's budget by half a percent. Wallace commented that the Budget Committee would celebrate with Fletcher the work God is doing at Fruitland, and everyone in leadership at the convention as well as pastors across the state recognize the needs Fruitland has. When the Budget Committee prepares the budget, it meets with all the agency heads and institutions to hear their needs and where they are physically. The Budget Committee tries to meet any need it is made aware of. Hill asked for anyone speaking in favor of the motion. Curtis Williams, messenger and pastor from Canton Baptist Church, Albemarle, spoke in favor of the new motion because he had planned to stand in opposition to the budget. He was at the meeting 17 years ago when the convention said it would move to 50%. In 17 years, the budget has changed in the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC), and he stated he no longer trusted the leadership of the SBC with $15.5 million of God's money given by the people of North Carolina. He said he would agree with the motion to give the SBC 49.5% and raise Fruitland's percentage as stated. The chair recognized Dr. David Horton, president of Fruitland Baptist Bible College. Horton shared that every year Fruitland is given an opportunity to present its needs to the convention's Budget Committee. In addition, EDT Todd Unzicker meets with Horton at least half a dozen times to see what the needs are at Fruitland. He said the last several years have been wonderful years financially for Fruitland because of the convention's support as well as individuals and churches that have given more than ever before. Because of that, Fruitland has been able to retire thousands of dollars of debt and been able to make up a deficit in the operating budget that was incurred before he became president of Fruitland. He gave God the glory and thanked the state convention. Horton said Fruitland was operating very strongly in the black, and he anticipated being able to do so in 2024. As the Budget Committee does its work for 2025, he hoped they will again consider the needs Fruitland has. He said Fruitland is currently in good shape, and he supported the budget as presented by the Budget Committee.

Following brief discussion, Hill recognized Wallace who encouraged messengers to come together and approve the budget as presented. He assured messengers that as God calls up and raises men to pastor churches, the resources are there in the budget.

Hill called for messengers to vote on the amendment on the floor. The motion to amend the budget failed.

Hill called for any further discussion on the budget as proposed and recognized Carroll Evans, messenger from Rocky Hock Baptist in Edenton, who moved to amend the motion on the table by removing money associated with the 50/50 split increase and change the budget to reflect the split as in the year 2023 budget. The motion was ruled out of order as it did not include specificity as to where the money would be allocated.

After additional brief discussion, Hill recognized Devon Varnam, board member and messenger from Southport Baptist, Southport. Varnam moved to call the question which received a second. Hill called for a vote to end debate which passed.

Hill called for a vote to adopt the 2024 Cooperative Program budget as presented, and the motion carried.

Hill recognized Wallace for the second motion from the board of directors. Wallace stated the prayer was that mission support from North Carolina churches will surpass the approved 2024 CP budget. On behalf of the board of directors, he proposed an alternate allocation for all CP receipts in excess of the budget in 2024 as follows:

The board of directors moves that any undesignated Cooperative Program receipts in excess of the approved 2024 Cooperative Program budget be allocated as follows: 50% to Global Missions partners and 50% to the Ministry Groups of the state convention. Coming from the board of directors, the motion did not require a second. There was no discussion, and the motion carried.

Hill recognized Wallace for the third motion from the board of directors. Wallace shared that the board is also responsible for recommending the goal and allocations for the North Carolina Missions Offering (NCMO). The proposed goal for the NCMO is increased from 2.5 million to 2.6 million. The percentage allocations of the offering to Baptists on Mission ministries and church planting remain the same. On behalf of the board of directors, Wallace presented the motion:

The board of directors moves that the 2024 North Carolina Missions Offering goal and allocations be adopted as printed in the budget booklet. Hill again stated that, coming from the board of directors, the motion did not require a second. There was no discussion, and the motion carried.

Zeb Cook, president of the board, thanked the Budget Special Committee for their work and stated that this concluded his report from the board of directors.

35. Hill thanked the messengers for the support they had shown for the Cooperative Program budget and the North Carolina Missions Offering allocations. He thanked messengers in advance for the important role they would play in leading their congregations to support the Cooperative Program and the North Carolina Missions Offering in 2024.

Hill reminded messengers of the importance of giving the convention staff feedback about the annual meeting. Messengers could complete an evaluation by texting the word "Evaluation" to 919-925-6525 or by scanning the code on the screen. There was also a printed version in the program which could be turned in to an usher or at the information desk.

36. Hill announced that messengers would now hear a report from the Committee on Nominations, and he recognized Dennis Thurman, chair of the committee. Thurman said that trust is the currency of this convention. Trust is what brings our churches from Murphy to Manteo together, and every November messengers vote to place that trust in people across our Baptist churches to lead and direct our N.C. Baptist convention and entities.

The Committee on Nominations had been hard at work over the year to provide messengers with a list of nominees they can trust to lead our convention and entities. Thurman explained the many ways messengers had access to the Committee on Nominations report. He also let messengers know how they can make recommendations at ncbaptist.org/recommend.

Before Thurman presented the committee's motion, he said the committee would like to inform messengers of a revision made after the publication date of the Book of Reports. The report was revised to strike the names of Jordon Willard from the Baptist Children's Homes nominees, Andrew McKinney from the N.C. Baptist Board nominees for region 7 and Stephen Buys from the N.C. Baptist Board nominees for region 9. The committee was informed that Willard would not be eligible to fill the position, and the other two no longer desired to be submitted as a nominee. The Committee on Nominations had voted to approve these adjustments, and the correct report was reflected in the committee report tab.

On behalf of the 2023 Committee on Nominations, Dennis Thurman moved the adoption of the Committee on Nominations report as amended. Hill added that, coming from a committee, the motion did not require a second. Hearing no discussion, Hill called for a vote, and the motion carried.

This concluded the Committee on Nominations report.

37. Hill took a few moments to spotlight both Fruitland Baptist Bible College (Fruitland) and Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary (SEBTS). He invited Dr. David Horton to share a few words about Fruitland followed by Dr. Scott Pace who shared about SEBTS.

Dr. Horton, president of Fruitland, said it was a pleasure to stand and give thanks to North Carolina Baptists for the support given to Fruitland as well as for Baptists on Mission who at that very moment was operating a feeding unit from Fruitland's campus to feed firefighters helping with a forest fire in the area. He said that Fruitland is interested in helping fill the vacant pulpits in North Carolina. Many churches will need bivocational pastors, and Fruitland has created a new ministry certificate program designed specifically for those bivocational pastors who may be called in their later years of life. The Ministry Essentials Certificate consists of two courses delivered online plus one meeting face-to-face. Horton encouraged pastors and church members to look around at those in our churches because he believes God is raising up pastors to fill the empty pulpits. He thanked messengers for partnering with Fruitland.

Dr. Pace, provost at SEBTS, thanked messengers for the impact the convention has had throughout the years and shared highlights of what God has been doing at SEBTS. Pace said this fall SEBTS welcomed one of the largest incoming fall classes in history. SEBTS also experienced a record year of charitable giving, receiving over $7 million dollars. Because of God's provision and the charitable giving, the school is able to provide full tuition scholarships for residential MDiv students for three years running. SEBTS is joining together with Fruitland to help resolve the issue of pulpit vacancies by training and equipping pastors to serve local churches. In addition to the seminary, SEBTS has an undergraduate aspect to the school in the College at Southeastern, a four-year undergraduate institution. Fruitland students can take Fruitland's two-year associates degree and roll the degree into a B.A. in pastoral ministry, completing a four-year degree at the College at Southeastern while remaining on campus at Fruitland. In addition, SEBTS has over 30 majors offered at the College at Southeastern. Pace encouraged messengers to drop by the SEBTS booth for more information.

38. Hill announced the afternoon session would conclude with miscellaneous business, and he asked messengers to refer to the "Guidelines for Conducting Convention Business" found in the Biblical Recorder.

As the first item of business, Hill reminded messengers of a mistake that occurred during the morning session when messengers were to vote on the final amendment to the resolution on the floor and then vote on the resolution as amended. Messengers had only voted on the amended resolution (see #24).

Hill called for messengers to adopt the recommended amendment to the resolution, as presented in the morning session. The motion carried. Hill then opened the floor for any discussion on the amended resolution. Scott Holzer, messenger from Friendship Baptist in Concord, called the question which received a second. A vote was taken for calling the question which passed, and Hill called for a vote to approve the amended resolution. The vote to approve the resolution, as amended, carried.

There were no additional items of miscellaneous business.

39. To close the afternoon session, Hill recognized James Allen Murray, convention second vice president, to close the session with a time of prayer.

Tuesday Evening, November 7, 2023

40. Hill called the evening session to order and recognized Bob Lowman, chair of the Committee on Convention Meetings, for the committee's final report. Lowman reported that as of 3 p.m., there were 529 pastors, 363 other church staff and 623 laity registered for a total of 1,515 messengers. In addition, 365 visitors had registered, providing a grand total of 1,880 in attendance which was the highest attendance since 2014.

Hill thanked the members of the Committee on Convention Meetings who worked diligently throughout the meeting to assist messengers and visitors with all aspects of the convention.

41. Hill recognized Devin Goins, chair of the board of directors for the Biblical Recorder (BR), and Chad Austin, managing editor for the BR, to bring a report.

Goins reported that the Biblical Recorder was founded in 1833 to build trust among North Carolina Baptists and beyond. The mission of trust is important as journalism looks different now. Many news organizations struggle to be viable. From 2020 to 2022, an average of two newspapers shut down weekly. A trusted news source is needed today. The past twelve months the BR has been under a management agreement with the convention. The BR's sources of news include a magazine, a weekly newsletter and a social media presence. The Baptist State Convention of North Carolina's board of directors formed a study committee, and that committee has made recommendations. Goins added that managing editor, Chad Austin, has done a great job, and with the messengers' approval of the Biblical Recorder Study Committee's recommendations today, the BR team and its board of directors are looking forward to continuing to be a trusted news source for North Carolina Baptists in the days ahead. This concluded the report from the BR board of directors.

42. Messengers viewed a video that unveiled Provision Financial Services, formerly known as N.C. Baptist Foundation. Clay Warf, president, thanked North Carolina Baptists for giving him the opportunity to serve at the Foundation for the last 25 years. He introduced Harry Nelson, president elect, who expressed his appreciation and gratitude to Warf. He has done tremendous work for the N.C. Baptist Foundation, now Provision. Nelson said a reward in accepting the role of president has been, over the last few months, being able to walk alongside Warf as the transition has progressed. Warf has been a wise encourager, and the friendship has grown to a mentorship. Nelson said he looks forward to learning from Warf the rest of his life. Nelson introduced the new Provision logo. While the name Foundation has served us well in the past, it does not fully reflect the breadth of services now offered to North Carolina Baptists. Nelson said Provision will continue to offer endowment and charitable services and also extend support for church loans, investment opportunities and other financial services that are uniquely tailored to individuals, churches and North Carolina Baptist ministries. Every North Carolina Baptist church should have an endowment set up for the long-term health of the church. Rebranding the organization has been contemplated for several years, and once they decided to move forward, the organization was tasked with finding a name and brand that actually fit the mission and values. From the beginning of the process, they were drawn to the narrative found in Genesis 22 where we see that God is Jehovah Jireh, the Lord provides. We see a clear example of the way

God provides for His people as He provides Abraham with a ram in the thicket to serve as a substitute sacrifice for his son, Isaac. The name and logo for Provision reflects God as the provider of all our needs. The logo is a representation of a ram's horn. We also recognize that God often chooses to work through His people to make provision for the common good and advancement of the gospel. Provision will continue to offer all the services as in the past and will also provide free resources in the area of stewardship education for individuals and churches, some of which will be available on Provision's website which will go live in just a few days. Everything done at Provision is done with a mission to encourage and enable faithful and wise financial stewardship for the glory of God and the good of the world. Provision cares deeply about educating individuals, churches and organizations on the importance of being a good financial steward. God has entrusted us to manage his resources, and one day He will hold us to account on how we have done that.

Nelson reported that so far in 2023 Provision had distributed over $3 million dollars toward North Carolina Baptist church ministries. They had given away a $5,000 ministry endowment as part of the annual meeting. The website is provision.org. Nelson thanked messengers for the opportunity to share the exciting news of the rebrand and the opportunity to serve them and churches.

On behalf of North Carolina Baptists, Hill thanked Clay Warf for 25 years of service and requested that EDT Todd Unzicker join him on stage to share a special time of recognition for Warf. Unzicker stated that Warf has carried himself with great Christian integrity and a servant heart. He embodies the "on mission together" spirit. Unzicker thanked Warf for being a great friend and mentor and for finishing well. On behalf of North Carolina Baptists, Unzicker presented Warf with a gift as a token of appreciation.

43. Hill welcomed to the podium Miles Mullin, vice president and chief of staff for the Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission (ERLC), to share a report. Mullin reported that the ERLC sees the state convention as a crucial partner in its work. As this convention exists to serve churches of North Carolina, the ERLC exists to serve the churches of the SBC. The ERLC is the public policy arm of the convention. For over 100 years, the ERLC has engaged the culture with the gospel of Jesus Christ and brought a distinctively Baptist voice to the public square. Their work focuses on four areas: life, religious liberty, marriage and family, and human dignity. Mullin shared a bit of their recent work.

Recently, several states have asked whether parents have the right to know if their child wants to identify as the opposite sex. The ERLC has been clear that parents are to be the primary teachers of children about matters of gender and sexuality, not schools. Parents with religious beliefs should not be undermined by the state. The ERLC has enjoyed several victories for parental rights and expects to win more.

The ERLC has stood for religious liberty and free speech rights for those who are attacked for their belief that marriage is between one man and one woman or that it is impossible for a man to become a woman or a woman to become a man. That is why the ERLC has continually opposed the Equality Act which would add sexual orientation and gender identity as protected classes to nondiscrimination statutes, undermining the ability of religious organizations to hire according to their religious beliefs. The ERLC is committed to serving churches, and there are a number of ways to stay informed about what is happening in congress and in the culture. Through the ERLC's Psalm 139 Project, they help pregnancy centers provide life-saving ultrasound equipment and train medical staff to use it. The heroes of the pro-life movement are the men and women working in pregnancy care centers across the nation day after day, meeting women at their point of need, educating and empowering them to choose life, saving baby after baby. These centers would not be able to do their work without the support of local churches. The Psalm 139 Project would not be able to provide the ultrasound machines without the generosity of Southern Baptists and partnership with state conventions. The ERLC and N.C. Baptists have partnered so far to place six life-saving machines in North Carolina, the latest in Brevard in June. Another one will be placed in a mobile unit in Harrisburg. Mullin recognized North Carolina Baptists for participation in this life-saving work. He presented N.C. Baptist president Quintell Hill with a Partner for Life Award to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina for commitment to value life and for supporting those on the frontlines of this essential ministry work.

44. Richard Brunson, executive director of Baptists on Mission, reported that in the world today there are wars, rumors of wars, earthquakes, tornadoes, hurricanes, famines and floods, but none of us are immune to disaster. It could be financial, sickness, broken relationships, abuse or other difficulties people experience. Jesus talks about how we should live in the midst of disaster in a broken world. Brunson said when he thinks about these needs, he thinks about opportunities we have as North Carolina Baptists to tell the good news of Jesus – to be His hands and feet in the midst of disasters. Baptists on Mission exists to glorify God by involving churches and Christians in meeting human needs in Jesus' name. How do we glorify God by helping churches be on mission? How do we share the good news? Through Disaster Relief. We glorify God every time volunteers minister to hurting people in Jesus' name. Earlier in the year, massive flooding hit the northeast United States. Vermont, one of the most unchurched states in the United States, now has a different understanding of who Baptists are and, more importantly, who Jesus is. While providing relief from the storm, volunteers from North Carolina shared the love of Jesus. Because of that, many people came to know Christ. Over the past year, Disaster Relief volunteers from N.C. Baptist churches responded to tornadoes in central and eastern North Carolina. Teams also traveled to Florida to provide hot meals, put tarps on roofs, and move trees damaged by Hurricane Idalia. Brunson said volunteers were currently working with homeowners in Maui who had lost everything in the fires. North Carolina Baptists continue to serve displaced people in Ukraine because of the war with Russia and have been supporting teams in Israel, preparing meals for security forces and displaced people. Wherever God calls us to be His hands and feet, we want to be there.

Messengers viewed a video highlighting mission opportunities through Disaster Relief. Brunson commented that many times people cannot hear the gospel until they have seen the gospel. Almost every time Jesus performed a miracle, He was healing someone. Whether on one of the mobile dental units, the health screening unit or on an international medical trip, medical missions is a great way for people to use the gifts God has given them to serve others by meeting physical needs in Jesus' name. Many times meeting that need opens the door to share about the one who can heal the body and the soul. Brunson said that every weekend 10,000 people visit the Smithfield Flea Market. The majority of those do not attend church on Sunday. Once a quarter, the medical units are there. Bethesda Baptist in Clayton has been sponsoring the clinics, and people are coming to know Jesus because volunteers are glorifying God by using the gifts He has given them to serve others in Jesus' name. Baptists on Mission is going to where the people are. A few months ago the dental bus was used at the Smithfield Flea Market. On that Sunday, volunteers treated 44 people, and there were nine professions of faith. People all across our state are living in difficult circumstances, and we want to help them. We have facilities called mission camps and rebuild centers where volunteers are housed and sent out to be on mission. There are many opportunities for N.C. Baptists to be on mission right here in North Carolina. Deep Impact camps help children and students understand they can be missionaries in their own communities. There are partnerships with other states and countries that offer opportunities for N.C. Baptists to pray, give and go. Brunson thanked messengers for glorifying God by being on mission together.

45. EDT Todd Unzicker introduced the re-elected officers and their families – Quintell Hill, president; Jason Miller, first vice president; and James Allen Murray, second vice president. Unzicker invited messengers to join him in praying over the officers.

46. Hill welcomed a report from the Baptist Children's Homes (BCH) and shared that BCH had been in a challenging season of ministry over the past year that resulted in leadership transition for the organization. While N.C. Baptists were saddened by recent news, Hill said he was thankful for the outpouring of concern and support for BCH that many N.C. Baptists had expressed as well as for the prompt and thorough action that the trustees of BCH took in addressing a difficult matter. Because of the support for the ministry of BCH, the Committee on Convention Meetings voted to keep a special session in the schedule this evening. Hill stated that BCH's mission to serve North Carolina's children, families and adults with disabilities remains steadfast. BCH's trustees and executive leaders are committed to transparency and restitution for the organization. North Carolina Baptists will continue to offer support and prayers, now more than ever, as they seek to press onward in wisdom. Hill invited Gayla Freeman, chair of the BCH board of trustees to bring an update.

Freeman said, as chair of the BCH board of trustees, it was a privilege to bring a report on behalf of Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina. She shared that she, like many messengers, is a layperson and proud to be on mission together as North Carolina Baptists. She reported that BCH president/CEO, Michael C. Blackwell, took a volunteer leave of absence on May 26, 2023. At that time, the executive committee of the BCH board of trustees agreed to commission an independent financial review regarding issues raised about certain presidential expenditures. The goal of the board of trustees, with a monumental task in front of them, was to address the circumstances with the utmost accountability, unwavering integrity, and complete transparency. After a nearly four-month process, the BCH and Michael C. Blackwell finalized a formal agreement on September 19, 2023, for him to retire immediately after the outcome of the review substantiated multiple instances of financial misuse on his part. Blackwell reimbursed BCH in full for the funds that were identified per the terms of the agreement. Also, in an effort for transparency, the board voted to release a detailed summary of the financial review. The report shows the misuse of organization funds was isolated to the president/CEO position and is not a systemic issue. To safeguard the organization, the executive committee is developing a plan to update BCH's bylaws and strengthen the organization's governing structures. A transition team has been selected and has already begun meeting in order to identify a new executive leader. BCH's chief operating officer, Keith Henry, and BCH's executive vice president for development and communications, Brenda Gray, have shared presidential responsibilities since the beginning of Blackwell's leave of absence and will continue to lead the organization in the interim.

Freeman said we have arrived at the end of a season. It has been one of heaviness, but it has been one where God's faithfulness and provision have shown. Numerous boys and girls have accepted Christ as their Savior. There have already been more children adopted by caring Christian couples than the previous year. A new family foster home has been dedicated in western North Carolina which will allow us to serve even more children. We have opened Emmanuel Home, a new home that will minister to birth mothers who have chosen adoption for their babies.

Freeman thanked North Carolina Baptists for their encouragement, prayers, and volunteer and financial support through this difficult season. God honors faithful support of North Carolina Baptists as we have seen Him continue to change lives now and for all eternity. Freeman shared that in a few minutes messengers would see a few of these lives on the stage as part of BCH's presentation. Children, caregivers, staff, foster parents and adoptive families will have the honor of celebrating God's goodness as they continue to be on mission together with North Carolina Baptists. Freeman asked for continued prayers and support as they minister to those in care today and to those who will come in the days ahead. As one season for Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina ends, a new one begins, and it is a season ripe with hope and expectation because of the friendship shared with North Carolina Baptist partners in ministry but, most importantly, because of grace, mercy and love of the heavenly Father we serve together.

Hill thanked Gayla Freeman for her service to North Carolina Baptists during difficult circumstances. He explained there was a large group of children waiting patiently backstage. Prior to entering into a session of hearing from Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Missie Branch, vice president of Community Engagement for Life Collective, Inc., led those present in prayer, and Meredith Snoddy, missions and communications director at Green Street Baptist Church, read passages from God's Word including Ephesians 2:19, Philippians 3:20, II Timothy 4:18, and II Corinthians 4:17 followed by a time of worship led by the Renewing Worship Band.

47. Due to security measures for children involved in the program, the livestream was paused as the stage was filled with children as well as staff from Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina. Blake Ragsdale, BCH director of communications, thanked N.C. Baptist messengers for welcoming the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina. He shared that N. C. Baptists on mission together impacted 167,000 lives last year through BCH.

BCH children, staff, group parents and residents joined together to lead all attendees in a camp-style version of "Jesus Loves Me".

Ragsdale shared that in Matthew 14 Jesus came walking on the water when the disciples were in a boat, the wind was howling, waves were raging and the disciples were scared. In the middle of their storm, Jesus spoke these words to them, "Take heart, do not be afraid, it is I". BCH has been through its own storm, and in the midst of that storm, Jesus was saying those same words.

Ragsdale asked messengers to turn their attention to the screen to view a video that introduced a young lady named Ciara who, as a young, precious child came to BCH during her own storm including a mother who died of a drug overdose and a father who ran away from his responsibilities. She is a sexual abuse survivor and an orphan who spent her entire teenage life at BCH. At the time of the video filming, she was a high school graduate who served as president of the National Honor Society and graduated as valedictorian of her class. In the video, Ciara shared she would be attending the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and she is a Christian who understands and sees that all of this was God's will.

Ragsdale stated the video is now four years old, and he introduced Ciara on stage to share an update to her story with N.C. Baptists. Ciara said the following month she would graduate from the University of North Carolina and would be applying to the Carolina College Advising Corps for UNC where she will be placed as a college advisor in an underrepresented high school somewhere in North Carolina. Ciara described that it has meant the world to herself as well as her sister that N.C. Baptists have been such an integral part of their journey the past ten years. She thanked all who have been involved in Baptist Children's Homes since she and her sister were welcomed there, at age 16 when she accepted Christ, as she applied to colleges and now that she has graduated from school. Ragsdale thanked Ciara for allowing her story of redemption to be shared in order to proclaim the name of Jesus.

Ragsdale shared another video of the story of Tirrel, a young teenager who was alone, isolated and hungry. He spent most of his life in that situation, but God had a different story for Tirrel that is being written before our eyes. Ragsdale added that a week following filming of the video Tirrel asked Jesus to be his Lord and Savior. In addition, just a month ago, with BCH friends and extended family in attendance at the courthouse in Fayetteville, adoption papers for Tirrel were officially signed.

Ragsdale reminded messengers that these stories are possible because of their prayers and support and through the Every Child Foster to Adopt partnerships. He invited Keith Henry, BCH chief operating officer, to join him on stage to continue the celebration.

Henry expressed gratitude for the partnership with N.C. Baptists and for the opportunity to be on mission together. BCH decided that the best way to demonstrate this gratitude to N.C. Baptists would be to show them some of the foster families, adoptive families and pastors who have been part of the Every Child partnership and were in attendance. Numerous families who are part of the foster process from all over North Carolina joined Henry on stage. Since announcing the Every Child initiative two years prior, Henry said almost 400 couples have been trained to be foster parents. Those families have cared for 800 foster children in their homes. In those homes, the children have experienced the gospel lived out. One of those partners, and a friend to BCH, is Robert Hefner. Henry asked Hefner to lead the group in a prayer for all those on the stage as well as those serving all across North Carolina.

Hefner led in a prayer of thanks that in a season of leadership transition for BCH, the Lord was wisely ahead of each step, preparing and continuing to empower the staff, teams and ministries of BCH. He prayed for the next leader that will be revealed in the days ahead. He thanked God for the thousands who have been ministered to and cared for through the mission and ministry of BCH through the decades of this ministry and asked for continued grace, guidance and mercy in the days ahead.

48. The Renewing Worship Band led in a closing song titled "This is Amazing Grace".

49. Convention president Hill said that amazing grace is God's riches at Christ's expense. He said he is glad to be a North Carolina Baptist. He invited messengers to show their appreciation to the Baptist Children's Homes and to Kenny Lamm who led the sessions of worship.

50. Hill reminded messengers the annual meeting in 2024 would take place November 4-5 at the Koury Convention Center in Greensboro. With a tap of the gavel, Hill announced the conclusion of the 193rd annual meeting of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, and the meeting was adjourned.

A MOVEMENT OF

CHURCHES ON MISSION TOGETHER

N.C. BAPTISTS partner across our state to accomplish more for God's kingdom and take the gospel to the nations. We are a convention of autonomous churches that partner together to reach the unreached, send missionaries and planters, train up the next generation, and serve churches and communities.

FROM GENESIS TO REVELATION, God is on a rescue mission for His people. We're convinced the church is God's "plan A," so we join Him where He is on the move – fueled by churches, for churches. N.C. Baptists exist to encourage and mobilize churches to share and show the gospel. We do this together so a lost world will know we are His – by the way we love one another.

THE GREAT COMMISSION COMPELS US

[redacted]

We desire to see all people receive Jesus as Lord and publicly profess their faith through baptism. We trust that God will draw souls. If we are obedient to share the message. Every year NAD Baptists celebrate new life in Christ through the "All the Tank" baptism initiative.

Jesus told His disciples to teach others "to observe everything I have commanded you" (Matthew 28:20). We strive to train the youngest disciple to the most seasoned disciple-maker.

TRANSFORMATIONAL CHURCHES

For many planted or declining churches, gospel impact begins with a need for church strengthening. MBI Baptists help leaders assess their current reality, envision a future of disciple-making and build strategies to impact their community with the gospel.

SEND

Helping send church planters through the local church.

Jesus' words serve as a powerful reminder for us: "The harvest is abundant, but the workers are few. Therefore, pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest" (Matthew 9:37-38). As God raises up workers, N.C. Baptists are here to help.

CHURCHES PLANT CHURCHES

Through Exodus, a partnership between NAD, Baptists and the North American Mission Board's Send Network, local churches plant churches. Planters are formed through a cohort model with coaching, training and financial support.

N.C. Baptists partner with churches to serve churches, communities, our nation & the world.

Missionaries serve churches, so churches can serve communities. We are called to go to our Jerusalem, Judea, Samaria and to the ends of the earth, sharing the same love Christ shows us.
